ELECT ALL BUT 3

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET AHEAD YESTERDAY'S ELECTION

BAKER WON OVER GANN

Offices of County Clerk and Presiding Judge to Republicans.—Absentee Vote May Change Hepburn Result.

WINNERS IN THIS COUNTY

S. P. Spencer, by 116 votes.
U. E. Lamkin, by 157 votes.
W. W. Graves, by 108 votes.
Col. J. D. McNeely, by 63 votes.
Wm. Job, by 391 votes.
E. T. Bailey, by 168 votes.
Charles D. Walker, by 5 votes.
Dwight Davis, by 115 votes.
Jesse F. Robertson, by 463 votes.
Henry Westfall, by 172 votes.
Fred Smith, by 121 votes.
Dan R. Baker, by 249 votes.
Charles F. McCaffrey, by 268 votes.

The Democratic county ticket was successful in yesterday's election with the exception of Judge W. M. Blackford for presiding judge of the county, Fred J. Yeomans for county clerk and George Hepburn for judge of the north district. Hepburn was defeated on the face of the unofficial returns by five votes by Charles D. Walker and the official vote and the absentee ballots may change the result.

Governor Folk lost the county for United States Senator to S. P. Spencer by 116 votes, while Uel W. Lamkin, the Democratic candidate for state superintendent of schools and W. W. Graves, democratic candidate for judge of supreme court, carried the county respectively by 157 and 108. Folk ran behind his ticket some 273 votes.

Col. J. D. McNeely carried the county over Congressman Charles F. Booher by 63 votes.

The difference in the vote between the state candidates and Folk and Booher is explained in that a number of anti-Wilson men voiced their expression by voting for the Republican candidates.

Judge Jesse Robertson for probate judge was high man on the Democratic ticket, winning over Judge R. L. McDougal by 463 votes.

William Job, who was re-elected as representative, was next, defeating E. C. Curfman by 391 votes.

Charles F. McCaffrey was third, Dan Baker fourth, E. T. Bailey, fifth and Henry Westfall, sixth.

The race for recorder between Dan R. Baker and L. C. Gann was not as close as many of the friends of both candidates expected. Baker only lost Polk township by 129 votes and ran away ahead of Gann out in the country precincts, especially on the west side of the county. This is the first time in the history of this county when a recorder of deeds was re-elected to succeed himself. It has been the habit to defeat the candidate for recorder who was trying for a second term, but Mr. Baker has broken this precedent.

The defeat of Fred J. Yeomans for county clerk is being explained on account of Mr. Yeomans being a member of the local draft board. Yeomans lost this township by 292 and also ran some behind the ticket in several of the precincts over the county. Mr. Yeomans will continue to serve on the board after his term of office is out.

Judge Dwight Davis for judge of the county court from the south district defeated Frank E. Lyle by 115 votes.

LT. DE ARMOND WOUNDED

Shell That Put Him Out Killed Several of His Men.—Believes the War Will Soon Be Over.

Lieut. Roscoe De Armond, wounded in action early in October is able to be out of the hospital and in a letter dated October 16 to home folks writes as follows: "I know you will be glad to know I am out walking around and will soon be able to return to my regiment. The doctor allowed me to walk over to the officers' Y. M. C. A. yesterday and today. I am still using a cane and while nervousness has left me my left leg and ear are a little off yet, but I'm doing fine. The shell that knocked me out put several of my men away for keeps—that's the saddest part of the whole affair, for a fellow becomes attached to his men and it certainly does hurt to see them so badly wounded and killed. The weather is cold and disagreeable over here now—damp and chilly. Looks like the struggle will soon be over, and I for one will be home just as soon as Uncle Sam will turn me loose."

LIEUT. ROSCOE DeARMOND

Lieut. De Armond is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. De Armond, of Maryville and is with the 369th Infantry, which has been participating in some of the fiercest fighting of the war.

J. G. Skidmore at Barnard.

Returned to Kansas City.

"FLU" IS WORSE IN COUNTY

Conditions in City Are Reported Better and Ban Is Expected To Be Lifted This Week.

Unless there should be a change in influenza conditions which have grown steadily better within the past few days the ban will be lifted at the end of the week Dr. F. M. Ryan city physician, stated this afternoon. There have been several new cases reported since yesterday morning, but all of mild form. A number have been released from the hospital and others at home have been relieved of quarantine.

While conditions in the city have improved, there are many cases in the country, according to Dr. Frank Wallis county health officer, who said today that the epidemic in the rural districts appeared to be on the increase. Both city and county health authorities urge a strict observance of prevention measures.

Marriage Licenses.

A marriage license was issued today to Thomas E. Lambley and Clara Ethel Carmichael, both of Conway, Ia.

BOTH MAKING CLAIM

LATE RETURNS HOWEVER GIVE CONTROL TO REPUBLICANS

CHAMP CLARK IN AGAIN

Democratic National Committee in a Statement Claims Election of 217 Members of Next House.

Washington, Nov. 6.—From the latest returns the republicans have apparently swept the democrats out of power in both the house and the senate. Incomplete returns indicated the republicans will have a majority of twenty in the next house. Judge Spencer, republican, defeated Jos. W. Folk, former governor of Missousi by 20,000 in the senatorial race, while Speaker Champ Clark just nosed through, the state going wet by a substantial majority. Ohio returns a democratic governor, but phohibition apparently wins. Kansas is safely republican, while Oklahoma has gone into the democratic column.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Both republicans and democrats continue to claim both the senate and the house. In the senate the republicans are claiming fifty members and giving the democrats forty-six, but of this number they were conceding their opponents three were doubtful, they said in the upper house. The democrats at the same time are laying claims to forty-nine and conceding the republicans thirty-five, with twelve divided between the two as doubtful.

While the republicans are claiming a majority in the house, the democrats are confident they would be in a position to organize their body. At noon the democrats of the national committee issued an official statement claiming they had surely elected 217 members of the next house, conceding 206 to the republicans, holding 12 as doubtful. They also claim forty-nine senators, conceding thirty-seven to the republicans, holding ten as doubtful. The committee announced that Henry Ford's managers were claiming his election by 10,000.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 6.—The answer to President Wilson's appeal for democratic support is apparently a republican landslide. An increase in democratic strength is noticeable in later returns from the sixth, seventh and eighth congressional districts, but figures available from sixty-one counties still give the republicans a substantial lead.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Champ Clark has apparently been re-elected by bua a small margin, while Judge Spencer, republican, has almost certainly been elected over former governor, Folk, democrat. The state went wet by a substantial majority.

New York, Nov. 6.—Senator Weeks, one of the prominent Republicans, was beaten heavily in Massachusetts by former governor, Walsh, Democrat. At the same time three prominent Democratic senators lost their seats to Republicans. They were Saulisburg of Delaware, beaten by former Senator Ball; Lewis of Illinois, the Democratic whip, beaten by Representative Medill McCormick, and Senator Tompson, beaten by Governor Capper.

Senator Norris, Republican, was leading Governor Morehead in Nebraska.

Alfred E. Smith, Democrat, was probably elected governor of New York.

SPENCER WINS OVER FOLK

In 4th District Booher Wins Over McNeely.—All State Amendments Are Probably Defeated.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Judge Selden P. Spencer of St. Louis has defeated Governor Joseph W. Folk for United States Senator.

Speaker Champ Clark was re-elected as congressman over B. H. Dyer in the Ninth Missouri district by a small margin.

Congressman Charles F. Booher was re-elected from the Fourth district.

Congressman Perl D. Decker was defeated for re-election by I. V. McPherson, the Republican candidate.

Probably all the amendments went down to defeat with the dry amendment, early returns indicate. The drys are still hopefull of the prohibition amendment carrying as the wet majority in St. Louis may not exceed 75,000, while Kansas City and Jackson county went dry by 2,000 votes as did nearly all of the counties in the state.

It was thought here today that Judge W. W. Graves and Uel W. Lamkin were re-elected.

BUILDING THAT IS BARRED

Seventeen Kinds Are Set Forth by the War Industries Board as Non-Essential.—Must Be Postponed.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The war industries board yesterday made public a list o fseventeen types of non-war construction projects which it holds can most excellently be postponed for the period of the war. They are:

Churches, schools, hotels, office buildings, bank buildings, public buildings, moving picture houses, theaters, and amusement places, apartment buildings, non-war factories, mills, etc., commercial enterprises and store buildings, gas and electric light plants grain elevators, waterworks improvements, sewerage systems, garages and gasoline stations, sidewalks and park improvements.

"It is imperative," said the war industries board's announcement, "that there should be not the slightest slackening in the wor kof war industries. There is such a serious shortage in labor and iron and steel that great curtailment of new construction is necessary."

TURKEY WILL COME HIGH

Thanksgiving Day Bird Has Increased in Price.—Army Camps Will Get Large Part of the Supply.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—Turkey and the trimmings for Thanksgiving, like everything else, will cost more this year than last, but commission men say there will be enough for everybody who has the price, which will be about 40 cents a pound, retail, against 35 cents a pound last year.

Dispatches from Dallas, Texas, say opening prices for the birds on foot were from 17 to 23 cents a pound. The difference between that and the retail price of 40 cents will be added before the birds shipped from Texas reach the St. Louis consumer. Commission men say much of this difference is due to loss in shipment and dressing and the cost of transportation.

Texas furnished the greater part of the turkey supply, although Missouri and Kentucky are expected to make big shipments. It is expected Texas will consume 15 per cent of the supply and the army camps in Texas will require another 25 per cent.

Geese, which for several years have replaced the Thanksgiving turkey in homes where the bread-winner was unable to pay turkey prices, also are higher this year. Geese now are retailing at 27 cents a pound in contrast to last year's price of 21 cents. The price of chickens and other fowls also is higher.

Obituary.

Elmer William Shelman was born October 2, 1884, and departed this life October 29, 1918, aged 34 years and 27 days. His death was caused from pneumonia, following an attack of influenza.

He was united in marriage to Miss Lettie New of Hopkins, Missouri, April 20, 1910. To this union five children were born as follows: Galien, Estol, Marvin, Roland and Earl, who were all present at the time of his death. He also leaves to mourn their loss, his companion, father and mother, Mr. William Shelman and Mrs. Jane Shelman of Pickering, Missouri. Also four brothers and sisters as follows: Mrs. Alice Young of Sheridan, Mo.; Mrs. Fannie Wilcox of Parnell, Mo.; Hardie N. Shelman of Pickering, Mo., and Ervine M. Shelman of Pickering, Mo.

Besides these he leaves a host of other relatives and friends. He was not a member of any church, but was always ready to help support it, and believed in it. A few days previous to his departure he expressed a desire to live a better life. He was one of the best of neighbors.

The funeral services were conducted from the home October 30, 1918, by Challie E. Graham pastor of the Isadora, Mo., Church of Christ, after which the remains were interred in the Hopkins cemetery.

The sympathy of the many friends go out to the bereaved ones in this time of sorrow. May they look to the Great Comforter in this time of grief, and be strengthened by Him.

NODAWAY BOYS WITH THE 89TH WERE AT ST. MIHIEL

"GAVE 'EM ALL WE HAD"

Capt. Harold Beacom Writes of Some of the Atrocities and Outrages Committed by the Boche.

The following is part of an interesting letter written by Captain Harold Beacom, a former Trenton, Mo. boy, a son of T. H. Beacom, general manager of the Rock Island railway system, and dated September 14, two days after the big independent offensive launched by the Americans at St. Mihiel.

As the 89th Division, in which there are a great many Nodaway county boys, took part in the offensive, the description of the engagement will be read with interest by many here:

"Have been at the front for the past three days and have seen our boys go through the Dutch just as we expected to. We were in rest billets (not resting but working like the mischief) reorganization after about 7 strenuous weeks at Chateau-Thierry, when the genius of our command conceived the idea of striking at a point heretofore considered impregnable. It has been held by the Germans ever since the war started. We were some little distance from this sector when we were ordered out. Marching entirely at night, we landed here in three nights and early in the morning of September 12, we gave them all we had. After a terrific harrassing fire, we dropped our barrage in front of the doughboys and in less than twenty-four hours we had cleaned them out of one of the most picturesque spots in France. It was practically an American operation under strictly American command. To illustrate how completely we surprised them, myself and two other officers on the brigade staff were able to stand right out in the open in front of our batteries and look down into the beautiful valley below onto the German lines, with hardly any danger from German counter battery fire. The few shells that fell were misdirected and the product of a nervous gunner. Three quarters of a mile below us we could plainly see the dough boys swinging along in small groups with their long easy pure all-American stride. The call was too great and we stepped down among them and in the midst of thousands of our own boys we walked on through fifteen or twenty villages reduced practically to powder by the violent shell fire of 4 years of war. So active was our own artillery that it effectively routed the enemy infantry and at the same time knocked out of position the major portion of their artillery. Every condition was ideal for us—the setting was arranged by Providence I feel sure. The night previous to the attack the rain fell in torrents successfully blocking all aerial observations of our movements and we took possession of our position without the customary air bombs at Chateau Thierry. As if on schedule the rain ceased and the skies cleared only a few moments before the attack. Our aviators took to the air, the day broke clear, our batteries opened up and over the top en route to Germany. As we went forward prisoners flocked in in great numbers, glad to get out from the rain of steel and four years of a rotten job. Their concrete positions served only as a place to linger until our doughboys arrived to pick them up. It was a great day. The gratitude and happiness of the French testify that the two great republics are even more closely united than ever before. We are repaid fully in seeing their countenances reflect the dawn of a new day. Some French civilians who have been held prisoners in the territory just recaptured came by here just now after four years under the Germans. The unspeakable stories I have just heard from the lips of young girls through my orderly who speaks German, are the most revolting things you could imagine. Young, innocent, peasant girls, are being brought in in large numbers with their fatherless children and heartbroken mothers. For four years they have not been allowed to go 100 yards beyond their respective homes. The men have been used for all sorts of German work in the fields and the necessary scavenger work about the troop billets. They tell us that the Germans had wind of our attack but didn't expect it for three days. They also knew it was to be the American troops who were to attack. Prussia and Prussian "kultur" is for the Prussians only and the fathers of these babies before my eyes now are Prussians. Germany has not nationalized her subjects which shows what kind of "beneficient rule" they have exercised over there. No prejudice of mine could induce two and two to make other than four and I say that once we put foot on German soil (that is beyond Lorraine) I am for the torch and sword until every last Prussian pays for his conduct with his blood. This attitude of "Big Brother" that filled us all is exploded by the release of these women and children."

Finds German Payroll-Thought It Stage Money-Gives it away

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

With the First American Army.—(By Mail.)—Private Steve Kelly, of Chicago, came back from the Saint Mihiel show with a paper packet neatly bound up with cord. When he had eaten his dinner in a brasserie in a certain city behind the American front, he indicated to the waitress that he would give her a "bon souvenir" for a tip.

He opened the packet and extracted therefrom a one hundred mark note.

"Merci," said the waitress and pocketed the German banknote.

A doughboy sitting next to Kelly, on his way up from a replacement camp asked what the things were.

"That's German paper money that I captured," said Kelly. "My lieutenant and me got into a place named Hattonchattel about two minutes after Jerry got out. We was prowling around in their old headquarters and found a big wooden box with rope handles on it. I jimmied it open with my bayonet and what was it but the payroll of the German regiment. My lieutenant dug in and found the top tray was full of gold, German gold pieces and lots of various kinds. He took them and put them away and turned them in. I asked him what he was going to do with the rest of the stuff and he says I could have any part of it for souvenirs. It was pretty dark, so I reached in and got a bundle of these notes. They seemed to be trading stamps or something, but when I got a chance to look them over, why, what are they but German currency. I have been giving away a lot of it. Here's one for yourself and your friends." And Kelly passed over a half a dozen twenty mark notes to his new found acquaintance.

The rest of the evening Kelly gave away five, ten, twenty, fifty and hundred mark notes to people he met. Then the next day he got a fearful shock.

"Don't you know these birds can send that German dough back to the States and get it cashed into real money there," asked a boy who had just annexed a one hundred mark note.

Kelly stopped and thought it over for a minute.

"I'll say you're right," he replied and counted up what he had left of the German regiment's payroll. There was eleven hundred marks, chiefly in small notes.

"And I'll bet I gave away five thousand marks," said Kelly disconsolately as he made his way toward the post office to ship what was left of the German wealth back to some one in Chicago.

WILL SAVE FOOD AFTER WAR

Value of Conservation in Home Reaches Beyond Present Crisis.

The value of food conservation in the home reaches far beyond the present war crisis; its effects on American housekeeping will be felt for at least a generation to come, according to the Missouri Division of the Food Administration.

"Keeping house has been exalted to profession," a member of the Food Administration pointed out recently. "The purchase and preparation of food in the family kitchen not only has become worthy of, but demands, thought and training. Mothers are seeing to it that their daughters shall learn how to market and how to cook with intelligence and economy."

CAPTURES BRO. IN BATTLE

U. S. Marine Took Relative Put in Hun Army While on Visit.—Joined the American Forces.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The Great War—breeder of romance and adventure—has given birth to one of the most dramatic situations recorded since the Kaiser's hordes started on their march through Belgium in 1914.

A United States Marine fighting on the western front recently captured his own brother during a raid on the enemy trenches. During the days of the Civil war, when brother fought brother and father and son faced each other through the smoke of battle, such incidents were more or less every day occurrences. But in this, the greatest of all wars, writers have been quick to say that romance in battle was a thing of the past.

Private Harold J. Dibbs, of the U. S. Marine Corps, tells of the incident in a letter written to his parents in Great Falls, Montana.

"A strange incident happened when I went over the top. I saw a Marine capture his own brother, who had been put into the German army while on a visit over here. Another soldier of an Allied nation wanted to kill him, as he had helped in the capture. It was an interesting sight, to be sure. The brother declared his intentions of joining the American forces."

Youth and War.

Alexander the Great was a celebrated soldier at 20.

Washington was a major before he was 20.

Kitchener at 20 was fighting for the French in the Franco-Prussian war.

The Duke of Wellington was an ensign at 18.

Grant was lieutenant at 21.

Farragut was an ensign at 21.

Napoleon was a major at 17.

Lafayette was a major general in the American Army at 20.

Commodore Stephen Decatur—entered the navy at 19.

James Lawrence—"Never give up the ship"—entered service at 16.

Ney—"Bravest of the brave"—was a Hussar at 18.

Of Washington's generals Montgomery entered the army at 18, Gates before he was 20, Hamilton at 19 was captain of artillery, "Light Horse" Harry Lee was captain at 19, General Knox enlisted at 18, Clinton was but 20 when he was a captain fighting at Frontenac.

To Avoid and Relieve Influenza

By DR. FRANKLIN DUANE

Many people have been frightened by what they have read or heard of influenza. The more you fear the disease the surer you are to get it. Go right about your business and forget it. As the disease is spread principally by contact thru sneezing, coughing or spitting, many health authorities have advised that everyone wear a gauze, which is daily washed and saturated with a one to five hundred solution of zinc sulphate in water, and then dried before wearing over the nose and mouth. You should avoid crowds, common drinking cups and public towels. Keep your strength up by taking lots of exercise in the open air and plenty of nourishing food.

If you have any of such symptoms as chilliness, nasal obstructions, flushed face, headache, feverishness, restlessness, weakness, or irritating cough, give up work at once and go to bed. This will save you rstrength to help overcome the disease. Put your feet in hot water for fifteen minutes. Thoroughly loosen the bowels with some such mild and non-irritating physics as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Drink principally of hot lemonade and then cover up with plenty of clothes in bed so as to get a good sweat. When sweating is free and the fever reduced take a dose of Anuric Tablets every four hours, followed by drinking at least a glass or two or hot water. Anuric Tablets help quickly to relieve the soreness of the muscles and bones from which most patients complain and help the kidneys flush out the poisons.

To relieve nasal obstructions and excessive discharge from the nose, probably nothing is better than such a mild, soothing, antiseptic wash as Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It will give great relief. Employed as a gargle, in same strength as made up for use in the nose, and as hot as can be borne, it quickly arrests soreness and dryness in the throat.

Influenza weakens the patient's resistance to disease, so that there is danger of bronchitis and pneumonia developing. To combat this tendency and fortify the patient's strength insist that he keep in bed at least two days. Probably nothing will at this stage hasten the recovery and strengthen the patient more than an iron-tonic tablet called "Ironic" or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been used by thousands in the past two generations. Adv.

"No American May Refuse," Cardinal Gibbons Says

James Cardinal Gibbons, the leading Catholic churchman in America, has issued a strong appeal in support of the United War Work Campaign.

"It is an American campaign," he said. "Its appeal is one that no American may refuse. America's answer will be another triumphant announcement that we are in this war as one people and as one nation to see it through to victory. Into the splendid work of sustaining the morale of our fighting men the great social organizations of America have thrown themselves. The American people will raise the sum they ask—generously and gladly."

CATHOLIC BOYS JOIN WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

Girls, Too, Will Stand With Them Behind Every Fighter at the Front.

To put behind every Catholic fighter in France the support of one boy or girl in every parish throughout the United States is the plan of the National Catholic War Council for backing the Victory Boys' and Victory Girls' "Earn and Give" Division of the United Work War Campaign to raise $170,500,000 "for the boys over there" during the week of November 11-18.

Through diocesan, county and parish organizations, the rallying of one youngster for every man who has gone to war in every community is already under way. By their own earnings, and not by contributions, it is expected that these sturdy little sponsors for the boys abroad will each raise at least five dollars for the joint welfare work of the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council, including the Knights of Columbus, War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army.

Boys and girls in every Catholic parish throughout the United States are already being picked to represent each fighting man who has left their church for the front. In every home that flies a service flag little brothers and sisters, sons and daughters, are eagerly volunteering to look out for the share of their family fighter in the huge joint welfare campaign for all the boys abroad.

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS SUPPLIED BY A. L. A.

English Camp Shows the Good Work of That Organization for Our Boys.

Something like 13,500 pieces of stationery are distributed daily among 4,000 enlisted men by Uriah B. Brubaker of Iola, Kas., as librarian at the Y. M. C. A. writing tent, Woodley Rest Camp of the American Expeditionary Forces in southern England. The number of troops at this camp varies from 3,000 to 9,000.

This single detail indicates why it is necessary for the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council and K. of C., War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board and Salvation Army have to furnish 125,000,000 sheets a month for soldiers' letters.

Hundreds of books are taken out in this small camp, books furnished by the American Library Association and handled by the Y. M. C. A. Most of the demands are for a good class of fiction. Thirty American newspapers are received there daily. One hundred and fifty magazines are in use daily and 400 pieces of athletic equipment furnished by the "Y" are put to good use.

Why You Should Give Twice What You Did Before

AUTOISTS MEET BLIZZARD

George Sillers and Wayland Ford En Route to Arizona.—Have Thrilling Experience in Colorado Mts.

George Sillers and Halley Ford of this city left here several weeks ago in their car for Jerome, Ariz., where they expect to spend the winter. The following account of their trip was written to the Democrat-Forum from Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 2:

"We are almost at our journey's end but can't get to the town we want to for a few days, as they said the town is quarantined for the 'flu.' The flu is sure taking its toll out here among the miners. Over at Jerome where we are going they died at the rate of 20 per hour yesterday and day before. Everyone has to wear masks and if they eatch one without they fine him $25. We had a very good trip considering everything.

"We spent two days at Colorado Springs, taking in the scenery around there and accidentally gained quite a little publicity while there. We undertook to drive up Pike's Peak. Well, everything went lovely until we got about 13,000 feet, when we run into the worst blizzard I ever saw. Missouri can't begin to have any like that. In less than 30 minutes the road was piled more than axle deep in snow and our roadster was frozen up. So we got turned around and started back, and before we had gone over a mile we had burned our foot brake, reverse and low speed bands till none of them would hold us. So there we were 12,000 feet up on the mountain side with nothing to keep us from going over some of these sharp curves and had we gone over, it would have been a drop of several thousand feet. Besides that we were freezing to death. So Ford got a pole about 12 feet long and put it under the rear axle and made the car drag it. So by crowding the brake when we could and driving very carefully, we finally got back to ——tom. And when we got there we had a crowd of spectators like you see when a circus comes to the average town. Also a column story in the Manitou papers the next day. But at that, I would like to try to go to the top of Pike's Peak once more when it wasn't snowing. After we left Colorado we came through New Mexico. I had always heard N. M. was a dry, sandy state, but not so last week. The day before we hit the N. M. line they had more rain than there had been for two years. So instead of dust and sand we had miles of water and sand mixed with snow, sleet and rain. But finally we got there and are this far in Arizona. Will be in Jerome some time next week."

MAY ADD A NEW SECRETARY

A Portfolio of Education Promises To Be the Next Addition To the President's Cabinet.

Washington, Nov. 6.—A secretary of education is to be the next addition to the President's cabinet, if a new bill now pending in the senate becomes a law.

The bill has the backing of the National Education Association, was recommended in a recent report by the Commission on Emergency in Education, and has the support of Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, chairman of the senate education committee. It seems likely to have little active opposition.

The bill's title says it is "to create a department of education, to appropriate money for the conduct of said department, and to appropriate money for federal co-operation with the states in the encouragement and support of education."

One hundred million dollars a year is appropriated by the bill for subsidizing training of teachers, physical education, education of immigrants and adult illiterates.

The secretary of education is to be on an equal basis with other members of the cabinet, and is to have three assistant secretaries. The secretary's salary is fixed at $12,000, and the assistant secretaries to receive $10,000 each. The appropriation contemplated for salaries, incidental expenses, and general financing of the new department is $500,000 a year.

ELECT ALL BUT 3

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET AHEAD YESTERDAY'S ELECTION

BAKER WON OVER GANN

Offices of County Clerk and Presiding Judge to Republicans.—Absentee Vote May Change Hepburn Result.

WINNERS IN THIS COUNTY
S. P. Spencer, by 116 votes.
U. E. Lamkin, by 157 votes.
W. W. Graves, by 108 votes.
Col. J. D. McNeely, by 65 votes.
Wm. Job, by 391 votes.
E. T. Bailey, by 168 votes.
Charles D. Walker, by 5 votes.
Dwight Davis, by 115 votes.
Jesse E. Robertson, by 463 votes.
Henry Westfall, by 172 votes.
Fred Smith, by 421 votes.
Dan R. Baker, by 249 votes.
Charles F. McCaffrey, by 268 votes.

The Democratic county ticket was successful in yesterday's election with the exception of Judge W. M. Blackford for presiding judge of the county, Fred J. Yeomans for county clerk and George Hepburn for judge of the north district. Hepburn was defeated on the face of the unofficial returns by five votes by Charles D. Walker and the official vote and the absentee ballots may change the result.

Governor Folk lost the county for United States Senator to S. P. Spencer by 116 votes, while Uel W. Lamkin, the Democratic candidate for state superintendent of schools and W. W. Graves, democratic candidate for judge of supreme court, carried the county respectively by 157 and 108. Folk ran behind his ticket some 273 votes.

Col. J. D. McNeely carried the county over Congressman Charles F. Booher by 65 votes.

The difference in the vote between the state candidates and Folk and Booher is explained in that a number of anti-Wilson men voiced their expression by voting for the Republican candidates.

Judge Jesse Robertson for probate judge was high man on the Democratic ticket, winning over Judge R. L. McDougal by 463 votes.

William Job, who was re-elected as representative, was next, defeating E. C. Curfman by 391 votes.

Charles F. McCaffrey was third, Dan Baker fourth, E. T. Bailey, fifth and Henry Westfall, sixth.

The race for recorder between Dan R. Baker and L. C. Gann was not as close as many of the friends of both candidates expected. Baker only lost Polk township by 129 votes and ran away ahead of Gann out in the country precincts, especially on the west side of the county. This is the first time in the history of this county when a recorder of deeds was re-elected to succeed himself. It has been the habit to defeat the candidate for recorder who was trying for a second term, but Mr. Baker has broken this precedent.

The defeat of Fred J. Yeomans for county clerk is being explained on account of Mr. Yeomans being a member of the local draft board. Yeomans lost this township by 292 and also ran some behind the ticket in several of the precincts over the county. Mr. Yeomans will continue to serve on the board after his term of office is out.

Judge Dwight Davis for judge of the county court from the south district defeated Frank E. Lyle by 115 votes.

LT. DE ARMOND WOUNDED

Shell That Put Him Out Killed Several of His Men.—Believes the War Will Soon Be Over.

Lieut. Roscoe De Armond, wounded in action early in October is able to be out of the hospital and in a letter dated October 16 to home folks writes as follows: "I know you will be glad to know I am out walking around and will soon be able to return to my regiment. The doctor allowed me to walk over to the officers' Y. M. C. A. yesterday and today. I am still using a cane and while nervousness has left me my left leg and ear are a little off yet, but I'm doing fine. The shell that knocked me out put several of my men away for keeps—that's the saddest part of the whole affair, for a fellow becomes attached to his men and it certainly does hurt to see them so badly wounded and killed. The weather is cold and disagreeable over here now—damp and chilly. Looks like the struggle will soon be over, and I for one will be home just as soon as Uncle Sam will turn me loose."

Lieut. De Armond is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. De Armond, of Maryville and is with the 369th Infantry, which has been participating in some of the fiercest fighting of the war.

"FLU" IS WORSE IN COUNTY

Conditions in City Are Reported Better and Ban Is Expected To Be Lifted This Week.

Unless there should be a change in influenza conditions which have grown steadily better within the past few days the ban will be lifted at the end of the week Dr. F. M. Ryan city physician, stated this afternoon. There have been several new cases reported since yesterday morning, but all of mild form. A number have been released from the hospital and others at home have been relieved of quarantine.

While conditions in the city have improved, there are many cases in the country, according to Dr. Frank Wallis county health officer, who said today that the epidemic in the rural districts appeared to be on the increase. Both city and county health authorities urge a strict observance of prevention measures.

BOTH MAKING CLAIM

LATE RETURNS HOWEVER GIVE CONTROL TO REPUBLICANS

CHAMP CLARK IN AGAIN

Democratic National Committee in a Statement Claims Election of 217 Members of Next House.

Washington, Nov. 6.—From the latest returns the republicans have apparently swept the democrats out of power in both the house and the senate. Incomplete returns indicated the republicans will have a majority of twenty in the next house. Judge Spencer, republican, defeated Jos. W. Folk, former governor of Missousi by 20,000 in the senatorial race, while Speaker Champ Clark just nosed through, the state going wet by a substantial majority. Ohio returns a democratic governor, but phohibition apparently wins. Kansas is safely republican, while Oklahoma has gone into the democratic column.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Both republicans and democrats continue to claim both the senate and the house. In the senate the republicans are claiming fifty members and giving the democrats forty-six, but of this number they were conceding their opponents three were doubtful, they said in the upper house. The democrats at the same time are laying claims to forty-nine and conceding the republicans thirty-five, with twelve divided between the two as doubtful.

While the republicans are claiming a majority in the house, the democrats are confident they would be in a position to organize their body. At noon the democrats of the national committee issued an official statement claiming they had surely elected 217 members of the next house, conceding 206 to the republicans, holding 12 as doubtful. They also claim forty-nine senators, conceding thirty-seven to the republicans, holding ten as doubtful. The committee announced that Henry Ford's managers were claiming his election by 10,000.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 6.—The answer to President Wilson's appeal for democratic support is apparently a republican landslide. An increase in democratic strength is noticeable in later returns from the sixth, seventh and eighth congressional districts, but figures available from sixty-one counties still give the republicans a substantial lead.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Champ Clark has apparently been re-elected by bua a small margin, while Judge Spencer, republican, has almost certainly been elected over former governor, Folk, democrat. The state went wet by a substantial majority.

New York, Nov. 6.—Senator Weeks, one of the prominent Republicans, was beaten heavily in Massachusetts by former governor, Walsh, Democrat. At the same time three prominent Democratic senators lost their seats to Republicans. They were Saulisburg of Delaware, beaten by former Senator Ball; Lewis of Illinois, the Democratic whip, beaten by Representative Medill McCormick, and Senator Tompson, beaten by Governor Capper.

Senator Norris, Republican, was leading Governor Morehead in Nebraska.

Alfred E. Smith, Democrat, was probably elected governor of New York.

SPENCER WINS OVER FOLK

In 4th District Booher Wins Over McNeely.—All State Amendments Are Probably Defeated.

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Judge Selden P. Spencer of St. Louis has defeated Governor Joseph W. Folk for United States Senator.

Speaker Champ Clark was re-elected as congressman over B. H. Dyer in the Ninth Missouri district by a small margin.

Congressman Charles F. Booher was re-elected from the Fourth district.

Congressman Perl D. Decker was defeated for re-election by I. V. McPherson, the Republican candidate.

Probably all the amendments went down to defeat with the dry amendment, early returns indicate. The drys are still hopefull of the prohibition amendment carrying as the wet majority in St. Louis may not exceed 75,000, while Kansas City and Jackson county went dry by 2,600 votes as did nearly all of the counties in the state.

It was thought here today that Judge W. W. Graves and Uel W. Lamkin were re-elected.

BUILDING THAT IS BARRED

Seventeen Kinds Are Set Forth by the War Industries Board as Non-Essential.—Must Be Postponed.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The war industries board yesterday made public a list o fseventeen types of non-war construction projects which it holds can most excellently be postponed for the period of the war. They are:

Churches, schools, hotels, office buildings, bank buildings, public buildings, moving picture houses, theaters, and amusement places, apartment buildings, non-war factories, mills, etc., commercial enterprises and store buildings, gas and electric light plants grain elevators, waterworks improvements, sewerage systems, garages and gasoline stations, sidewalks and park improvements.

"It is imperative," said the war industries board's announcement, "that there should be not the slightest slackening in the wor kof war industries. There is such a serious shortage in labor and iron and steel that great curtailment of new construction is necessary."

TURKEY WILL COME HIGH

Thanksgiving Day Bird Has Increased in Price.—Army Camps Will Get Large Part of the Supply.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—Turkey and the trimmings for Thanksgiving, like everything else, will cost more this year than last, but commission men say there will be enough for everybody who has the price, which will be about 40 cents a pound, retail, against 35 cents a pound last year.

Dispatches from Dallas, Texas, say opening prices for the birds on foot were from 17 to 23 cents a pound. The difference between that and the retail price of 40 cents will be added before the birds shipped from Texas reach the St. Louis consumer. Commission men say much of this difference is due to loss in shipment and dressing and the cost of transportation.

Texas furnished the greater part of the turkey supply, although Missouri and Kentucky are expected to make big shipments. It is expected Texas will consume 15 per cent of the supply and the army camps in Texas will require another 25 per cent.

Geese, which for several years have replaced the Thanksgiving turkey in homes where the bread-winner was unable to pay turkey prices, also are higher this year. Geese now are retailing at 27 cents a pound in contrast to last year's price of 21 cents. The price of chickens and other fowls also is higher.

Obituary.

Elmer William Shelman was born October 2, 1884, and departed this life October 29, 1918, aged 34 years and 27 days. His death was caused from pneumonia, following an attack of influenza.

He was united in marriage to Miss Lettie New of Hopkins, Missouri, April 20, 1910. To this union five children were born as follows: Galien, Estol, Marvin, Roland and Earl, who were all present at the time of his death. He also leaves to mourn their loss, his companion, father and mother, Mr. William Shelman and Mrs. Jane Shelman of Pickering, Missouri. Also four brothers and sisters as follows: Mrs. Alice Young of Sheridan, Mo.; Mrs. Fannie Wilcox of Parnell, Mo.; Hardie N. Shelman of Pickering, Mo., and Ervine M. Shelman of Pickering, Mo.

Besides these he leaves a host of other relatives and friends. He was not a member of any church, but was always ready to help support it, and believed in it. A few days previous to his departure he expressed a desire to live a better life. He was one of the best of neighbors.

The funeral services were conducted from the home October 30, 1918, by Challie E. Graham pastor of the Isadora, Mo., Church of Christ, after which the remains were interred in the Hopkins cemetery.

The sympathy of the many friends go out to the bereaved ones in this time of sorrow. May they look to the Great Comforter in this time of grief, and be strengthened by Him.

HOW THEY FOUGHT

NODAWAY BOYS WITH THE 89TH WERE AT ST. MIHIEL

"GAVE 'EM ALL WE HAD"

Capt. Harold Beacom Writes of Some of the Atrocities and Outrages Committed by the Boche.

The following is part of an interesting letter written by Captain Harold Beacom, a former Trenton, Mo. boy, a son of T. H. Beacom, general manager of the Rock Island railway system, and dated September 14, two days after the big independent offensive launched by the Americans at St. Mihiel.

As the 89th Division, in which there are a great many Nodaway county boys, took part in the offensive, the description of the engagement will be read with interest by many here:

"Have been at the front for the past three days and have seen our boys go through the Dutch just as we expected to. We were in rest billets (not resting but working like the mischief) reorganization after about 7 strenuous weeks at Chateau-Thierry, when the genius of our command conceived the idea of striking at a point heretofore considered impregnable. It has been held by the Germans ever since the war started. We were some little distance from this sector when we were ordered out. Marching entirely at night, we landed here in three nights and early in the morning of September 12, we gave them all we had. After a terrific harrassing fire, we dropped our barrage in front of the doughboys and in less than twenty-four hours we had cleaned them out of one of the most picturesque spots in France. It was practically an American operation under strictly American command. To illustrate how completely we surprised them, myself and two other officers on the brigade staff were able to stand right out in the open in front of our batteries and look down into the beautiful valley below onto the German lines, with hardly any danger from German counter battery fire. The few shells that fell were misdirected and the product of a nervous gunner. Three quarters of a mile below us we could plainly see the dough boys swinging along in small groups with their long easy pure all-American stride. The call was too great and we stepped down among them and in the midst of thousands of our own boys we walked on through fifteen or twenty villages reduced practically to powder by the violent shell fire of 4 years of war. So active was our own artillery that it effectively routed the enemy infantry and at the same time knocked out of position the major portion of their artillery. Every condition was ideal for us—the setting was arranged by Providence I feel sure. The night previous to the attack the rain fell in torrents successfully blocking all aerial observations of our movements and we took possession of our position without the customary air bombs at Chateau Thierry. As if on schedule the rain ceased and the skies cleared only a few moments before the attack. Our aviators took to the air, the day broke clear, our batteries opened up and over the top en route to Germany. As we went forward prisoners flocked in in great numbers, glad to get out from the rain of steel and four years of a rotten job. Their concrete positions served only as a place to linger until our doughboys arrived to pick them up. It was a great day. The gratitude and happiness of the French testify that the two great republics are even more closely united than ever before. We are repaid fully in seeing their countenances reflect the dawn of a new day. Some French civilians who have been held prisoners in the territory just recaptured came by here just now after four years under the Germans. The unspeakable stories I have just heard from the lips of young girls through my orderly who speaks German, are the most revolting things you could imagine. Young, innocent, peasant girls, are being brought in in large numbers with their fatherless children and heartbroken mothers. For four years they have not been allowed to go 100 yards beyond their respective homes. The men have been used for all sorts of German work in the fields and the necessary scavenger work about the troop billets. They tell us that the Germans had wind of our attack but didn't expect it for three days. They also knew it was to be the American troops who were to attack. Prussia and Prussian "kultur" is for the Prussians only and the fathers of these babies before my eyes now are Prussians. Germany has not nationalized her subjects which shows what kind of "beneficient rule" they have exercised over there. No prejudice of mine could induce two and two to make other than four and I say that once we put foot on German soil (that is beyond Lorraine) I am for the torch and sword until every last Prussian pays for his conduct with his blood. This attitude of "Big Brother" that filled us all is exploded by the release of these women and children."

Finds German Payroll-Thought It Stage Money-Gives it away

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

With the First American Army.—(By Mail.)—Private Steve Kelly, of Chicago, came back from the Saint Mihiel show with a paper packet neatly bound up with cord. When he had eaten his dinner in a brasserie in a certain city behind the American front, he indicated to the waitress that he would give her a "bon souvenir" for a tip.

He opened the packet and extracted therefrom a one hundred mark note.

"Merci," said the waitress and pocketed the German banknote.

A doughboy sitting next to Kelly, on his way up from a replacement camp asked what the things were.

"That's German paper money that I captured," said Kelly. "My lieutenant and me got into a place named Hattonchattel about two minutes after Jerry got out. We was prowling around in their old headquarters and found a big wooden box with rope handles on it. I jimmied it open with my bayonet and what was it but the payroll of the German regiment. My lieutenant dug in and found the top tray was full of gold. German gold pieces and lots of various kinds. He took them and put them away and turned them in. I asked him what he was going to do with the rest of the stuff and he says I could have any part of it for souvenirs. It was pretty dark, so I reached in and got a bundle of these notes. They seemed to be trading stamps or something, but when I got a chance to look them over, why, what are they but German currency. I have been giving away a lot of it. Here's one for yourself and your friends." And Kelly passed over a half a dozen twenty mark notes to his new found acquaintance.

The rest of the evening Kelly gave away five, ten, twenty, fifty and hundred mark notes to people he met. Then the next day he got a fearful shock.

"Don't you know these birds can send that German dough back to the States and get it cashed into real money there," asked a boy who had just annexed a one hundred mark note.

Kelly stopped and thought it over for a minute.

"I'll say you're right," he replied and counted up what he had left of the German regiment's payroll. There was eleven hundred marks, chiefly in small notes.

"And I'll bet I gave away five thousand marks," said Kelly disconsolately as he made his way toward the post office to ship what was left of the German wealth back to some one in Chicago.

WILL SAVE FOOD AFTER WAR

Value of Conservation in Home Reaches Beyond Present Crisis.

The value of food conservation in the home reaches far beyond the present war crisis; its effects on American housekeeping will be felt for at least a generation to come, according to the Missouri Division of the Food Administration.

"Keeping house has been exalted to profession," a member of the Food Administration pointed out recently. "The purchase and preparation of food in the family kitchen not only has become worthy of, but demands, thought and training. Mothers are seeing to it that their daughters shall learn how to market and how to cook with intelligence and economy."

CAPTURES BRO. IN BATTLE

U. S. Marine Took Relative Put in Hun Army While on Visit.—Joined the American Forces.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The Great War—breeder of romance and adventure—has given birth to one of the most dramatic situations recorded since the Kaiser's hordes started on their march through Belgium in 1914.

A United States Marine fighting on the western front recently captured his own brother during a raid on the enemy trenches. During the days of the Civil war, when brother fought brother and father and son faced each other through the smoke of battle, such incidents were more or less every day occurrences. But in this, the greatest of all wars, writers have been quick to say that romance in battle was a thing of the past.

Private Harold J. Dibbs, of the U. S. Marine Corps, tells of the incident in a letter written to his parents in Great Falls, Montana.

'A strange incident happened when I went over the top. I saw a Marine capture his own brother, who had been put into the German army while on a visit over here. Another soldier of an Allied nation wanted to kill him, as he had helped in the capture. It was an interesting sight, to be sure. The brother declared his intentions of joining the American forces."

Commodore Stephen Decatur—entered the navy at 19.

James Lawrence—"Never give up the ship"—entered service at 16.

Ney—"Bravest of the brave"—was a Hussar at 18.

Of Washington's generals Montgomery entered the army at 18, Gates before he was 20, Hamilton at 19 was captain of artillery, "Light Horse" Harry Lee was captain at 19, General Knox enlisted at 18, Clinton was but 20 when he was a captain fighting at Frontenac.

To Avoid and Relieve Influenza

By DR. FRANKLIN DUANE

Many people have been frightened by what they have read or heard of influenza. The more you fear the disease the surer you are to get it. Go right about your business and forget it. As the disease is spread principally by contact thru sneezing, coughing or spitting, many health authorities have advised that everyone wear a gauze, which is daily washed and saturated with a one to five hundred solution of zinc sulphate in water, and then dried before wearing over the nose and mouth. You should avoid crowds, common drinking cups and public towels. Keep your strength up by taking lots of exercise in the open air and plenty of nourishing food.

If you have any of such symptoms as chilliness, nasal obstructions, flushed face, headache, feverishness, restlessness, weakness, or irritating cough, give up work at once and go to bed. This will save you rstrength to help overcome the disease. Put your feet in hot water for fifteen minutes. Thoroughly loosen the bowels with some such mild and non-irritating physics as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Drink principally of hot lemonade and then cover up with plenty of clothes in bed so as to get a good sweat. When sweating is free and the fever reduced take a dose of Anuric Tablets every four hours, followed by drinking at least a glass or two or hot water. Anuric Tablets help quickly to relieve the soreness of the muscles and bones from which most patients complain and help the kidneys flush out the poisons.

To relieve nasal obstructions and excessive discharge from the nose, probably nothing is better than such a mild, soothing, antiseptic wash as Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It will give great relief. Employed as a gargle, in same strength as made up for use in the nose, and as hot as can be borne, it quickly arrests soreness and dryness in the throat.

Influenza weakens the patient's resistance to disease, so that there is danger of bronchitis and pneumonia developing. To combat this tendency and fortify the patient's strength insist that he keep in bed at least two days. Probably nothing will at this stage hasten the recovery and strengthen the patient more than an iron-tonic tablet called "Ironic" or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been used by thousands in the past two generations. "No American May Refuse," Cardinal Gibbons Says

James Cardinal Gibbons, the leading Catholic churchman in America, has issued a strong appeal in support of the United War Work Campaign.

"It is an American campaign," he said. "Its appeal is one that no American may refuse. America's answer will be another triumphant announcement that we are in this war as one people and as one nation to see it through to victory. Into the splendid work of sustaining the morale of our fighting men the great social organizations of America have thrown themselves. The American people will raise the sum they ask—generously and gladly."

CATHOLIC BOYS JOIN WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

Girls, Too, Will Stand With Them Behind Every Fighter at the Front.

To put behind every Catholic fighter in France the support of one boy or girl in every parish throughout the United States is the plan of the National Catholic War Council for backing the Victory Boys' and Victory Girls' "Earn and Give" Division of the United Work War Campaign to raise $170,500,000 "for the boys over there" during the week of November 11-18.

Through diocesan, county and parish organizations, the rallying of one youngster for every man who has gone to war in every community is already under way. By their own earnings, and not by contributions, it is expected that these sturdy little sponsors for the boys abroad will each raise at least five dollars for the joint welfare work of the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council, including the Knights of Columbus, War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army.

Boys and girls in every Catholic parish throughout the United States are already being picked to represent each fighting man who has left their church for the front. In every home that flies a service flag little brothers and sisters, sons and daughters, are eagerly volunteering to look out for the share of their family fighter in the huge joint welfare campaign for all the boys abroad.

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS SUPPLIED BY A. L. A.

English Camp Shows the Good Work of That Organization for Our Boys.

Something like 13,500 pieces of stationery are distributed daily among 4,000 enlisted men by Uriah B. Brubaker of Iola, Kas., as librarian at the Y. M. C. A. writing tent, Woodley Rest Camp of the American Expeditionary Forces in southern England. The number of troops at this camp varies from 3,000 to 9,000.

This single detail indicates why it is necessary for the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council and K. of C., War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board and Salvation Army have to furnish 125,000,000 sheets a month for soldiers' letters.

Hundreds of books are taken out in this small camp, books furnished by the American Library Association and handled by the Y. M. C. A. Most of the demands are for a good class of fiction. Thirty American newspapers are received there daily. One hundred and fifty magazines are in use daily and 400 pieces of athletic equipment furnished by the "Y" are put to good use.

Why You Should Give Twice What You Did Before

The government has fixed the sum needed for the care of the men in the service at $170,500,000.

Unless Americans give twice as much as ever before our soldiers, sailors and marines in 1919 may not enjoy their

- 3,600 recreation buildings
- 1,000 miles of movie films
- 100 stage stars
- 2,000 athletic directors
- 2,500 libraries supplying 3,000,000 books
- 85 hostess' houses
- 15,000 "Big Brother" secretaries
- Millions of dollars of home comforts

Give to maintain the morale that is winning the war now

AUTOISTS MEET BLIZZARD

George Sillers and Wayland Ford En Route to Arizona.—Have Thrilling Experience in Colorado Mts.

George Sillers and Halley Ford of this city left here several weeks ago in their car for Jerome, Ariz., where they expect to spend the winter. The following account of their trip was written to the Democrat-Forum from Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 2:

"We are almost at our journey's end but can't get to the town we want to for a few days, as they said the town is quarantined for the 'flu.' The flu is sure taking its toll out here among the miners. Over at Jerome where we are going they died at the rate of 20 per hour yesterday and day before. Everyone has to wear masks and if they catch one without they fine him $25. We had a very good trip considering everything.

"We spent two days at Colorado Springs, taking in the scenery around there and accidentally gained quite a little publicity while there. We undertook to drive up Pike's Peak. Well, everything went lovely until we got about 13,000 feet, when we run into the worst blizzard I ever saw. Missouri can't begin to have any like that. In less than 30 minutes the road was piled more than axle deep in snow and our roadster was frozen up. So we got turned around and started back, and before we had gone over a mile we had burned our foot brake, reverse and low speed bands till none of them would hold us. So there we were 12,000 feet up on the mountain side with nothing to keep us from going over some of these sharp curves and had we gone over, it would have been a drop of several thousand feet. Besides that we were freezing to death. So Ford got a pole about 12 feet long and put it under the rear axle and made the car drag it. So by crowding the brake when we could and driving very carefully, we finally got back to town. And when we got there we had a crowd of spectators like you see when a circus comes to the average town. Also a column story in the Manitou papers the next day. But at that, I would like to try to go to the top of Pike's Peak once more when it wasn't snowing. After we left Colorado we came through New Mexico. I had always heard N. M. was a dry, sandy state, but not so last week. The day before we hit the N. M. line they had more rain than there had been for two years. So instead of dust and sand we had miles of water and sand mixed with snow, sleet and rain. But finally we got there and are this far in Arizona. Will be in Jerome some time next week."

MAY ADD A NEW SECRETARY

A Portfolio of Education Promises To Be the Next Addition To the President's Cabinet.

Washington, Nov. 6.—A secretary of education is to be the next addition to the President's cabinet, if a new bill now pending in the senate becomes a law.

The bill has the backing of the National Education Association, was recommended in a recent report by the Commission on Emergency in Education, and has the support of Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, chairman of the senate education committee. It seems likely to have little active opposition.

The bill's title says it is " to create a department of education, to appropriate money for the conduct of said department, and to appropriate money for federal co-operation with the states in the encouragement and support of education."

One hundred million dollars a year is appropriated by the bill for subsidizing training of teachers, physical education, education of immigrants and adult illiterates.

The secretary of education is to be on an equal basis with other members of the cabinet, and is to have three assistant secretaries. The secretary's salary is fixed at $12,000, and the assistant secretaries to receive $10,000 each. The appropriation contemplated for salaries, incidental expenses, and general financing of the new department is $500,000 a year.
